BRIEF ITEMS OF INTEREST.

Mr. Percy L. Clinton, the Virginian-Pilot machinist, has a rosebud that is rapidly becoming petrified under the influence of a chemical of his own discovery which he applied to it.

The Francis Barnes Y's held their regular weekly business meeting at the Girls' Home last night.

Mr. M. W. Croker, representing Hicks' Capuline Headache Cure, is in the city making arrangements to introduce the remedy here.

Mr. E. B. Lewis, of Kinston, N. C., is in Norfolk on route home from the Navy, and is in the city of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Pine, No. 416 Gule street.

Mr. Lewis is engaged with his father in the education of the young in his native town.

Dr. S. R. Cohen, of Ohef Sholem Temple, preached a fine sermon before his congregation last night on "The Tragedy of Laws," from the text, "Greater than I Can Bear."

J. P. Enoch, of Currysburg, who has been preaching nightly at Burrows Memorial Baptist Church, Lambert's Point, was in Norfolk yesterday.

Dr. George Johnson and daughter, Miss Nanette M. Johnson, of Frederick, Md., were in Norfolk yesterday.

Mrs. Theodore Elyson and daughter, of Richmond, were passengers here yesterday from New York on the Old Dominion steamer Princess Anne.

Colonel Henry Gillingham and wife have arrived at the Atlantic from Hot Springs, N. C.

Mr. P. D. Lethew and bride, of Charlotte, N. C., are in the city, guests of the Atlantic.

Mrs. Hatcher, wife of Rev. S. C. Hatcher, accompanied by her little daughter, returned on the Old Dominion steamer yesterday morning from a two months' absence in Europe.

Rev. S. J. Batten, pastor of the West End Methodist Church, Hampton, who has been spending several days in this city and section, left for his home yesterday afternoon.

The Yellow Fever Scare. The recent yellow fever fright at the Soldiers' Home, Hampton, Va., raised a panic in the city and its vicinity. The treatment, yellow fever is treated in a simple way possible although it is a terrible disease. Perfect sanitary arrangements are insisted upon. The supply of milk and water must be absolutely pure. Simple medicines are administered and the bowels are kept free and regular. If every one, sick or well, we would be a magnificent race mentally and physically. There is nothing better than Hatcher's Stomach Bitters for cleansing the system. A dose three times a day will bring about the desired result. It will positively cure constipation and dyspepsia and for weak liver or kidneys there is nothing to equal it. Every druggist in the city has it. A private Revenue Stamp covers the neck of the bottle.

An old remedy that has proven its value in curing headaches and pains has made its appearance here—Hick's Capuline.

English novelties in fine suitings and trousseaus tailored by Rudolph & Wallace. They are sure to win favor.

A SEA MYSTERY
The Derelict Cruise of the Edna and Emma.

A Stoker on the Frey Sailed—The Raymond's Narrow Escape—The Tiltle Baker—Chaffin's Suffering in a Heavy Storm.

A curious tale of the sea comes to us from the far Great Miquelon Islands, a French group of rocky isles, situated near the Southeast double peninsula of Newfoundland, at the mouth of the Gulf of St. Lawrence. It will be remembered that during the hurricane, which struck this coast on or about August 14th of this year and lasted until the 20th, a number of vessels were lost between Cape Lookout, N. C., and the Virginia coast, among them was the "Edna & Emma," Captain Richardson, the captain nor any of his crew ever being heard from again. The schooner struck near Cape Lookout and became derelict, turning turtle.

She was for some time lost sight of, and now, October 3d, she again bobbed up serenely and at far Miquelon. A fisherman finding the floating vessel, bottom up and towing her into St. Pierre harbor, where investigation established her identity. What currents she was the sport of and what storms helped her journey can only be guessed. That with the fate of her crew is only subject for surmise.

LOST A SAILOR OVERBOARD. On her voyage from Pensacola to this port a tragedy occurred on board the Norwegian steamship Frey, Captain Sanderhagen, by which her crew was one man short on their arrival here Thursday. The man was a stoker, and he is reported to have been thrown overboard during the night.

He deliberately climbed on the steamer's rail and jumped overboard. What, if any, attempt to save him were made could not be learned, but the captain stated that it was a deliberate case of suicide. No doubt everything was done that could be to save the man.

A NARROW SQUEAK.

The schooner H. J. Raymond, Captain Grayson, had a decidedly rough experience in getting into port yesterday. She was caught near the tail of the horseshoe by the heavy gale of yesterday forenoon and lost both anchors; had, also, her fore and main booms broken, and was forced to take the Eastern channel past the Rip Raps, entering the Roads, and narrowly escaped grounding and wreck. The wind was blowing nearly 40 miles at the time. She was bound up the James river for wood, from New York, but will refit here before proceeding.

A GOOD RECORD.

Capt. J. L. Leighton, of the bark Tiltle Baker, is proceeding with his dispatching of cargo, and will probably finish to-day and sail for New York to finish discharging, Sunday. Capt. Leighton is a young man and deserves much credit, as he has been without a mate since the 17th of August; yet, the bark is as neat and trim as a new pin, and is making a good record for time, &c.

The wire to Cape Henry is now working again, and last evening recorded a velocity of 36 miles per hour at the Cape.

TO LOAD.

The barge Gladiolus arrived here yesterday from Richmond with a part cargo of railroad ties. She will complete cargo with lumber at this port for Philadelphia.

THROUGH A HURRICANE.

The British ship, Chatfield, Captain Hill, Pensacola to West Hartlepool, put in at this port yesterday for bunker coal. She ran into a hurricane coming up the Florida coast and, Tuesday, lost a portion of her deck load of logs, through the shipping of heavy seas.

One of these seas washed Captain Hill against the logs and injured his face somewhat. The steamer was delayed 36 hours by the storm.

A Former Norfolk Lady Married.

A dispatch received here from Vineland, N. J., dated the 4th instant, says: "A very pretty home wedding took place here this morning at 11 o'clock, when Miss Charlotte Belle Jones became the bride of Mr. Volusko Vaiden, of Cumberland county, Va. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Douglass, pastor of the Vineland Baptist Church, and Mr. G. Robert Moss, of Cumberland, acted as best man. The maid of honor was Miss Eva Bowden, of Norfolk. The bride was attired in going-away gown of pearl gray and carried a nosegay of white violets. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Vaiden left on a Northern trip, after which they will spend a few days with the bridegroom's mother in New Kent, Va."

"Among those who attended the wedding were Hon. George E. Bowden and family, of Norfolk; Mrs. C. W. B. Lane, Mr. A. L. Lloyd and family, of Norfolk, and Mr. Robert Holmes and family, of Baltimore, Md."

"The bridegroom, who is well known throughout the State, is a son of the late Major Volusko Vaiden, of New Kent. He was formerly Deputy Clerk of King William, and now fills a similar office for the Cumberland County and Circuit Courts. He is a lawyer by profession, and was educated at a Richmond College."

"His bride was formerly a resident of Norfolk, and is connected with some of the most prominent Virginia families. Mr. and Mrs. Vaiden will reside in Cumberland, and the latter will make a pleasing addition to the society of that old county."

Trains Collide.

An accident occurred on the Norfolk and Western terminal tracks yesterday morning near the Granby street crossing, caused by two engines coupled together running into the rear of a train of cars that were being sidetracked. Four of the cars were damaged, but no one was injured. The wreckage was removed in a short time.

Funeral of Mrs. James.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary V. James, wife of Mr. Robert James, who died at her residence, Princess Anne county, Thursday, October 5, at 6 a. m., took place yesterday from the residence at 3 p. m. and was conducted by the Rev.
